PROTESTANTISM AND POLITICS IN KOREA (PAPERBACK)

University of Washington Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. Following its introduction to Korea in the late nineteenth century, Protestantism grew rapidly both in numbers of followers and in influence, and remained a dominating social and political force throughout the twentieth century. In Protestantism and Politics in Korea, Chung-shin Park charts this stunning growth and examines the shifting political associations of Korean Protestantism. Elsewhere in Asia, evangelical Protestant missionaries failed to have much social and...
