Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Jen Harris, Anna Voytinsky (illustrator). Language: English. Brand new Book. About the Book Face Your Fears is a novel about a contemporary Canadian family. It is a mainstream family drama about the challenges of everyday life. You will meet Georgie, Bob, their eight kids, their extended family, friends and neighbours in Bell's Corners. One night at their monthly Chinese buffet dinner, all ten family members pull the same fortune from their cookies at the Panda Buffet. "You must face your fears," they all read. Within minutes, bad things start happening. Young Eddie, the most athletic of the family, is hit by a car, leaving him with two broken legs. Five-year-old Jasmine disappears while her brother Neil is watching her, and only the tiny Olivia can find and rescue her twin. To make it through a month of turmoil and challenges, the family members must lean on each other and tap unknown inner resources. The story is meant to appeal to a broad audience. It contains romance, mystery, a stalker, human drama, history and comedy. There are no dirty bombs, just dirty dishes. Teens may enjoy the story as much as their aunts and mothers. Like some modern mysteries, it also contains a peppering of original recipes. There are original illustrations by the author and her daughters. This story is told with stories inside the story. Although it is mainly set in modern Bell's Corners, the story roams over decades and continents. The rich cast of characters includes all ages and walks of life. It also contains some truly awful jokes.
