

The Red Story: Unless we change our direction, we are likely to end up where we are headed CHINESE PROVERB (Paperback)

By Anastasia Kalantzi

Independently Published, United States, 2019. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. The princess arrived at the Palace very late at night. She had lost all the men of her escort because of the terrible storm that had suddenly erupted. She asked to be invited to spend the night safely. "I'm a princess", she told them. "A real princess?", the Queen asked her then. "But, of course, yes!", she answered. However, the Queen did not really seem to believe what she was saying to her, but finally to be completely assured about that, she summoned the maids and ordered them: "You're going to put our thickest mattresses on the bed where she goes to sleep in a while and just above them make the bed with the softest duvets available in the Palace. Though, underneath all this, you're going to carefully put that pea in there", and she took out a little green pea from her elegant bag and gave it to them. They did exactly what have been ordered by the Queen and prepared properly the room for the young supposedly princess. The princess had a hot bath, took her dinner with the company of the King, the...
