Not for a little rural town of Stamford. Whole year its inhabitants are engaged in a monotonous routine of field work just to wake up with exciting preparations and happy talks among each other. They know that this year's fair would be nothing as what they have seen before - over the years the fair grew in its scale involving newer activities and amusements. What surprises will it hold for them this year? But not everyone shares the pleasant excitement. The wealthy family of Benesch enjoys a peaceful family Sunday afternoon, when a letter arrives from Stamford and becomes a quarrel cause between the couple. Mrs Benesch is used to the grand ceremonies and the refined life of London elite, and the prospect of visiting her sister in the god-forgotten town days away from their home, holds no pleasure for her whatsoever. And what is more, her 'daring' sister insists on bringing their beloved daughter Emma to...
